Frankie Rayh Reischling, 36, of New Llano, passed away Feb. 2 at his residence. He is survived by his wife, Stephanie; parents, Sheila Cox, of Green Acres, Fla., Frank and Kimberly Reischling, of Anacoco; and sisters Rachel Reischling and Katie Kapotsy.

Frankie was a loving husband, son, brother and uncle. He loved life, loved to laugh and to eat good food. He possessed an ingrained warrior spirit and was a natural caretaker — he fought bitterly for those he loved and would do anything he could to encourage a friend in need.

Frankie also possessed a generous spirit; what he had, he shared with others to the fullest extent.

Love is Frankie's ultimate legacy. He loved strongly, deeply, and his love lasted, despite pain, hurt, or anger. Such qualities, always in short supply, will bear him well in the journey he now takes ahead of us all.
