Tressie, the daughter of Samuel Alexander Carruth and Bertie Catherine Monk Carruth, was born on June 13, 1924, in Hicks, LA. She passed away Monday, September 3, 2012, in Alexandria, LA, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. She died surrounded by her loving family.

Tressie grew up and raised a family in the Hicks/Simpson area. Always good with her hands, she worked as a seamstress and homemaker, often sewing and altering clothes for family and friends. She was a life-long member of Laurel Hill Baptist Church, where she served in various capacities over the years.

This year, Mrs. Miller and her husband, C.D., were recognized by Louisiana Family Forum as one of the longest married couples residing in Louisiana. This award resulted in the couple being featured on the Family Forum website and newsletter. Thrilled with the award, Mrs. Miller attributed faith and hard work to her long lasting marriage.
