Gayla, keeping your Dad and your Mom in my prayers. He always had a smile and a great greeting for our family. I will always remember him pushing that red lawn mower in his white t-shirt and straw hat. And I'll always remember Miss Zennie's comical sayings as, "Well land's alive." Remembering playing Parchesi on the back porch and going to the "Hut" theater. Great memories in our peaceful little neighborhood. So glad she kept in touch with Mom. Love and prayers, Bryan
