Rachel Ophelia Bond, 84, entered peacefully into rest on Monday, May 12, 2025 in Lake Charles, Louisiana. Rachel was born on December 9, 1940 in Timpson, Texas to Audra Thomas Kiper and Rachel Williams Kiper.

She will be greatly missed by all those who love her.

She filled the family home with love and happiness, always a loving mother and grandmother. She found solace at church, in prayer and in service to the community. Rachel's hobbies included: making flannel pajamas for all of the family including all of the nieces and nephews; hand quilting and painting; writing and relating family stories to her children and grandchildren; she was a life long fan of Elvis, and she greatly enjoyed traveling with family for over 65 years, from the Cajun Ocean to the Canadian border, from the U.S. Capitol to Hawaiian waterfalls, certain to stop at every national monument and park along the way.

Those left to cherish Rachel's memory are her two sons, Sherrill Clark Bond and wife Minoo of Atlanta, Georgia, and Samuel Lynn Bond and wife Laurie of New Iberia, Louisiana; one daughter,
