Stacey Lyn Bailey Smith

SEP 13, 1973 - JAN 15, 2026

Stacey Lyn Bailey Smith, age 52, of Alexandria, Louisiana, passed away on January 15, 2026.

Stacey was born on September 13, 1973, in Alexandria, Louisiana, to James Bailey and Ruby Tuzzolo. She was a proud graduate of Hicks High School.

Above all else, Stacey was a daughter, sister, wife, mother, and devoted Mimi. She lived her life side by side with her husband, sharing 33 years of love, laughter, and partnership. Through him, she discovered a deep passion for fishing and hunting, enjoying the simple joy of being outdoors together.

Somewhere along the way, wife became Mama and Mama became Mimi. When the grandbabies came along, Stacey stood on business. When those little critters came along, everyone else became chopped liver. IYKYK.

Stacey worked faithfully for Wal-Mart for 16 years and later served in the cafeteria at Hicks High School, where she always had a smile waiting for the kids. She was known for her strong work ethic, kind heart, and willingness to help wherever she was needed.

She was a true Dolly Parton fanatic, never missing a chance to celebrate the music and spirit she loved so much.

Stacey never was one who liked attention but, was somehow always the life of the party.

Stacey also had an endless amount of love for her beloved Bubba, her kids: J-Bird, and Stormcat; her grandbabies: Pusscat, Kreek Kreek, Rooster, and Ro Ro—each one holding a special place in

I remember when Bubba started dating Stacey, she was funny without trying to be. Her laugh was the best and soon everyone was laughing and giggling. She even made me wet my britches once! I will remember her for that laugh and her love and devotion to her family. She was one of a kind. I love you all. Tuffy
